Large Crowds Attend Open House

Nearly three hundred residents and servicemen were present to help celebrate the first anniversary of the Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, Monday night, May 29. A program of entertainment, dancing, community singing, and refreshments were enjoyed at the open house festivities. Mrs. Ann Eason, Mrs. Maizie Boyle, and Mrs. Margaret Steele, committee for the organization and operation of the center, were guests of honor. They were congratulated by City Councilmen B. L. Meritt, Eugene V. Lynch, Howard A. McHugh, and Edward Dennis.

Master of ceremonies was Private First Class Nick Manuel, who also sang several solos. Sergeant A. Flinch, mandolin; Sergeant Rex Lewis and Staff Sergeant Charles Stephens, guitar players, with Miss Delpha Finch, vocalist, made up a hillbilly musical team which proved very popular. Private Ed O'Connell sang four numbers and Corporal Ralph Kroman provided a lot of fun with his clever card tricks. These boys were all from nearby Fort Daly City.

Phil Hart, Irish tenor, sang several selections. Accordion music was furnished by the son of Councilman Lynch. Miss Mary K. Williams added "blues" songs to the program, and there was a vocal duet by the twins, Miss Torret Cleveland and Miss Torrance Cleveland.

Refreshments were served buffet style from an attractively decorated table, featuring pink and white and pink and orchid colors. A six-tiered birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Eason and Mrs. Ed Byrne, was the centerpiece. It was topped by a single candle, symbolizing the club's first year of service.

Among recent donors to the club have been Relish Bakery, a cake; Laura Lee Candies; Mrs. Dora Holmberg, cash; Mrs. Hattie Kelly, a new stove; A. M. Harrison, installation of the stove.

Jeff To Present Colorful Operetta

"H. M. S. Pinafore," colorful Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, will be presented by the Music department in Jefferson Union high school auditorium, Thursday, June 8. The operetta is directed by Oscar Busch, music instructor.

The public is invited to attend the program, which will start at 8 p. m. Tickets may be secured from any member of the cast.

An attractive stage set is being prepared by Earle Lewis, of the art department, assisted by the art class students who are doing all the necessary painting of scenery.

Featured members of the cast include Robert Olson as Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty; Kenneth Hatt, Captain Carcoran; Allen Pettigrew, Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman; Eugene Grant, Dick Deadeye; Kenneth Martin, Billy Bobstay, boatswain; Pat Marocco, Josephine, the captain's daughter; Vivian Thorsen, Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin; Virginia Nestor, Mrs. Cripps, Little Buttercup.

Costumes for the ambitious production have been designed and made under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Jones.

Announce High School Graduation Speakers

Student speakers have been chosen for the June 21 commencement program at Jefferson Union high school, when 63 high seniors are scheduled to receive diplomas. They are Alma Simonetti and Harry Kent, selected on the basis of their 4-year scholastic achievement; Kenn Hatt, senior president, and Lenore Ross, student body president, who will give the welcome and farewell, respectively.

Faculty committee on the selection of the two principal speakers, Miss Simonetti and Kent, included Principal James Ferguson, Roy Gale, Oscar Busch, A. Hansen, and Mrs. Marjorie Reandeau.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Serving as an electrician in an Engineer printing plant somewhere in North Africa, T-5 Jess Cook, 121 Irvington street, Daly City, inspects the wiring leading to a press.

The Public Relations branch, Allied Force headquarters, Mediterranean theater, tells here how the outfit Cook is in helps clear the way for the defeat of the Nazis:

"Tons of machinery, invented by the Germans, daily turn out the maps that will guide the Allies on their march to Berlin—and a huge warehouse that once housed tons of supplies is now the printing plant of a United States Army Engineer Topographical unit which is preparing these maps.

"When these engineers arrived in North Africa and took over the site they now occupy, the buildings were full of foodstuffs and other goods. The soldiers went to work, moved out the foodstuffs, and moved in their huge machines.

"Part of this printing plant is not unlike a large lithograph reproduction plant in the United States. The majority of the maps are prepared by offset lithography and the largest camera and the largest press in North Africa speed the work.

"The men who are doing this highly important duty are almost entirely veteran lithographers with many years of civilian experience behind them. A great many of them are members of the same union local. The negative retouching, cutting, and wet plate work all require highly-skilled men and these soldiers meet the requirements to such a degree that supervision is kept at a minimum and a premium placed on individual responsibility.

"The maps which these men both draw and reproduce for use by the combat teams are made from air reconnaissance photos, drawings, and captured enemy battle maps. Before the map is completed and reproduced, all three sources have been combined and the result is usually a map more complete than anyone would dream possible. And complete to the last little detail."

Ralph E. Clark, whose photograph appears above, was promoted to first lieutenant in April of this year, according to word received by his wife, Mrs. Frances Clark. Clark is in Italy with the U. S. Army Air Corps. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Clark, 251 Wellington avenue.

A graduate of Jefferson Union high school, he has been in the service since 1941. Before going to Italy he was "somewhere in Africa."

Clark's wife and daughter, both named Frances, reside in Daly City.

From the European Theatre of Operations, U. S. Army, comes word that Dread J. Rhymes has been promoted from private to corporal. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dread J. Rhymes sr., 44 Cavour street, Daly City.

Arthur H. Lucier, 198 Irvington street, has received the U. S. Army Good Conduct medal. He is a T-4 with the Army postal unit in the South Pacific.

Another big class of Uncle Sam's aviation cadets, Class 44-G, was graduated, this week, from the Strother Army Air field, Kansas, flying school to the advanced and final stage of training.

After 70 hours aloft in Vultee Valiants and as many more hours in ground school and instrument instruction, spread over their nine and one-half week's stay there, they move on to an advanced field, either single-engine pursuit or twin-engine bomber training.

Bring Them In!

Have you a gas mask in your possession, issued to you as a civilian defense volunteer? Then this appeal is addressed to you and Arthur J. Bodien, Civilian Defense director, asks your immediate cooperation.

The Army has asked that all masks held by Daly City volunteers be turned back AT ONCE to be reconditioned for military use.

The masks should be brought to Civilian Defense headquarters, Room 2, city hall, 75 Wellington avenue. Name of the person to whom the mask was originally issued should be firmly attached to it in order that office personnel may check off the returns.

DON'T PUT OFF the return of your mask!

Draft Board Busy With Reclassification

The task of reclassifying all men in 1A who have reached 26 nears completion at Daly City Draft Board No. 103, according to Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk. Following a recent national directive that men 26 and over should not be called for service with the armed forces, the local board began the huge job of reconsidering each man on the basis of occupation.

June induction calls include two for the Army, June 19, fifty men and June 28, twelve men. There is one call for the Navy, June 30, 26 men.

Five transfers will take preinduction physicals, June 2, and fifty transfers will take theirs, Saturday, June 3.

The local board had its city hall office open Memorial Day, but the board members met Wednesday evening rather than on the holiday. Men who compose this group are Dr. J. C. McGovern, Fred Collins, Otto A. Schramm, Clarence W. Peterson, and Fred B. Keyston.

Memorial Traffic Through City Heavy

In spite of war-time driving curtailments, Memorial Day traffic through Daly City was heavy, Tuesday, May 30, and demanded constant supervision by members of the Daly City Police force. With major cemeteries of the San Francisco area located just below this community, there was a steady stream of cars through Daly City during the holiday. Congestion was augmented by the hundreds of street car patrons who transferred to the No. 40 cars here. Officers George Savage and George Hopman estimated that the heaviest traffic occurred between 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

Property damage resulted, May 24, 5:05 p. m. when an auto and bus accident occurred at Knowles and Santa Barbara avenues. Drivers were C. M. Garratt, San Bruno, and Charles Norry, 369 Guttenberg street. Daly City.

At 9:12 p. m., May 26, Company No. 1 and Company No. 4, D. C. F. D., were needlessly called out when three small boys turned in a false alarm from Box 54, Brunswick and Acton streets.

May 27, 11:30 p. m., Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, Officers Henry Sundermann jr., Roland A. Petrocchi, and Roy Beecher averted a fight which was reported as about to break out at Mission Bell chateau, 6143 Mission street. The sailor purported to be initiating the row was sent home by the of-

Daly City To Have Council For Girls

Adult volunteer workers who serve as troop leaders, committee members and consultants for Girl Scouting get as much fun and benefit out of their work as the girls themselves, according to Miss Norma Northberg, of the Girl Scout national staff. Visiting Daly City, Monday, May 29, Miss Northberg met with leaders and others interested in Girl Scouting.

"Women become interested in Girl Scouting as a service to the girls, and then discover that they've done themselves a good turn, too. They develop new interests, hobbies and friends—and association with the younger generation rejuvenates their own spirits and point of view," Miss Northberg said.

She described one leader whose Girl Scout training course in folk songs and song leading had started her on the absorbing and rewarding hobby of collecting work songs and sectional music of the country. This woman now has a fine collection and is considered something of an authority on the subject. Another volunteer leader, who learned the Girl Scout cookery techniques to teach to her troop, found that she had acquired a skill which was a great social asset. Her outdoor suppers became famous among her friends; she began to collect recipes—and presently found herself writing articles on the subject.

The greatest satisfaction of all, according to Miss Northberg, is helping girls realize that they, too, can have a part in the war effort, by collecting salvage, working for or in hospitals, making scrapbooks for convalescent soldiers, aiding at Blood Donor centers, learning how to raise and preserve foods, carrying on other important and useful wartime services.

"One woman, alone, can offer one pair of hands to volunteer war services, but if she leads or aids a Girl Scout troop she finds she has twenty or more pair of hands for the same job! In addition to the things accomplished—the tons of waste fats collected, the miles of bandages rolled, the dozens of jars of vegetables canned, the Girl Scout leader has the satisfaction of knowing that the girls themselves have benefited by the work they have done for their country."

The girls themselves have found in Scouting an answer to their

They'll Represent Jefferson High At Boys' State

Two boys from Jefferson Union high school will be sent to California Boys' State at Grant Union high school and junior college, North Sacramento, June 22-29 inclusive. Kenneth G. Hatt, left, 535 San Diego avenue, is being sponsored by Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, while Robert Clair Olson, right, 167 Miriam street, is sponsored by Brisbane Post No. 473, American Legion.

According to Daly City Boys' State chairman, A. G. K. Jakobsen, the program, held annually, is a school in which self-imposed lessons and practices in objective citizenship are mastered.

"If our republic is to survive, youth must have a true conception of the ideals and objectives of government. Youth must know what results attend the successful operation of government. These lessons are taught in Boys' State," the brochure describing the annual event stated.

"To encourage and develop a deeper interest in, and study of, the problems of government, beyond what the boys get in high schools today, the Boys' State was founded, and it is today an established part of the Americanism program of the American Legion," Jakobsen pointed out.

"The Purple Heart" Now At Daly City

Hit-maker, star-maker Darryl F. Zanuck has done it again!

The unprecedented advance acclaim being accorded his production of "The Purple Heart" which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre, heralds the fact that the producer who has given the American movie-going public its most memorable screen thrills, has once again achieved a screen masterpiece—and one being hailed by previewers as his greatest triumph.

With such unforgettable productions as "How Green Was My Valley" and "This Above All," among others, to his credit—as well as the building of such potent screen personalities as Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, George Montgomery, Richard Greene, John Payne and John Howard—Zanuck's production of "The Purple Heart," featuring Dana Andrews, Richard Conte, Farley Granger, Kevin O'Shea, Donald Barry, Trudy Marshall and Sam Levene naturally takes its place as one of the year's most important pictures.

The 20th Century-Fox film is the stirring drama of Yanks bombing Tokyo, falling into the brutal hands of the Japs, and being put on trial not as prisoners of war, but for murder. It's the story of eight dauntless U. S. flyers who tie the whole Jap empire into knots: of Captain Ross of Texas, who pitted his guts against Jap brutality; of Sergeant Clinton who planted the U. S. flag of courage in a Jap courtroom; of Lieutenant Greenbaum of New York who convicted the Japs of murder and terror; of Lieutenant Canelli who enlightened the Jap Bureau of Enlightenment — with flying fists; and of all the gallant others who defied the Jap Army, Navy and Air Force—and won!

As produced by Zanuck, and directed by Lewis Milestone, "The Purple Heart" is a "fighting mad" picture, blazing with the fury of Yank courage and pride, and destined to stand as one of the most moving and overwhelmingly powerful films the screen has ever known.

Mrs. Donald Ihle, 1081 Hanover street, called the department, May 28, at 5:30 p. m., to report that a car had struck their automobile. Sergeant Benedetti and Officer Sundermann responded and discovered that a Willys coupe owned by E. A. Marshall, 1155 Brunswick street, had run down the hill and hit the rear of the car owned by Ihle. Damage was not serious, according to the report.

Officer Hopman and Company No. 1, Company No. 2, and Company No. 6, D. C. F. D., responded when a passing motorist phoned to state there was a fire on a golf course near Daly City. Erroneously describing the golf course as "Lake Merced golf course", the passerby caused the local department to respond at once, only to later discover that the fire was outside the Daly City limits and was being handled by Engine 33. S. F. F. D. The fire was at San Francisco Golf course.

IF YOU NEED EXTRA SUGAR FOR HOME CANNING —

FORM 420-480

Applications for extra sugar for home canning must be accompanied by Spare Stamp 37 from War Ration Book Four, the Office of Price Administration has announced.

One simple form, R-323, may be used for all persons residing at the same address. Spare Stamp 37 (not sugar stamp 37) must be included with the application for each person for whom application is being made. This stamp will serve as identification and will make it unnecessary to send the ration book through the mail.

Sugar Stamp 37 in War Ration Book Four will never be used, OPA announced. Because many housewives mistakenly sent this stamp to their local boards when applying for home canning sugar, instead of the correct stamp—spare stamp 37—OPA has announced that Sugar Stamp 37 will not be used at all, so that no one will suffer for this mistake.

Schedule Baseball Games For Sunday

With the Daly City Juniors' morning appearance at Marchbank park rained out, Sunday, May 28, the weather had cleared sufficiently by afternoon to permit use of the diamond for the second game, in which the San Francisco Marines beat the Armed Guard center, 6 to 0. Both teams are stationed at the Treasure Island base.

In the Saturday schedule, the previous day, a group of boys from Holy Angels church, Colma, finally came through with a win over the Daly City Cubs juniors, 6 to 4. In other contests, local youngsters defeated McLaren park, 12 to 2, and Morgan's, 8 to 2. Director Charles Norry reports that the park grounds have been undergoing repair work this week, but they will be in shape for the usual Saturday sports program.

Contests slated for Sunday, June 4, include Daly City Juniors against the Junior Oaks, 11 a. m., and Camp Cronkite versus 6th AA Radio Squadron, at 2:30 p. m.

Association Asks Full Consideration

"Voters should give careful consideration before signing petitions now being circulated for an initiative constitutional amendment to provide increased funds for elementary schools," California Taxpayers' association stated today, making public its preliminary analysis of the proposed amendment.

"New and increased taxation will be required to meet the added expense called for by the proposed amendment," the association stated.

The following factors especially deserve citizen consideration in connection with this proposed constitutional amendment:

1. The proposed amendment would add $14,000,000 a year to state school costs at the present level of enrollment.
2. California's constitution now requires that $60 of state money per elementary pupil be set aside for school districts — a total of $42,000,000 a year. Of this, the constitution requires $33,600,000 must be paid for elementary teachers' salaries.
3. National Education association reports show that in proportion to school-age children (5 to 17 years old), California spends 10 per cent more than the second highest cost state, Nevada.
4. The high tax rates prevailing during the 1930 decade failed to produce revenue sufficient to meet the state's expenses and a 1931 surplus of $31,000,000 melted away to a 1940 deficit of $82,000,000. The present cash excess results from the high level of wartime production and war-enforced economies in capital expenditures.
5. Conclusion of the war will bring increased costs for relief, for resumption of suspended services, for rehabilitation of veterans, and for delayed construction programs.

HOW BIG IS AMERICA?

How big is America?

Not how many square miles does it cover, but what is its capacity for further growth and development? Has it reached the limit in industrial expansion, in transportation progress, in productive capacity?

Apparently some people think it has, and they would adjust our economy to conform with the view that the nation is not likely to develop further.

This was brought out by Senator Harry S. Truman in discussing the bill now before Congress whereby the various modes of transportation would be combined into a limited number of systems under the ownership of a few large companies. Declared the Senator, "The reason I differ with the proposed 'integration' of transportation is that I believe the proposal is fundamentally based upon the concept that a permanent level or pattern of transportation has been achieved and it is now simply a question of organizing its structure and distributing its fruits."

He pointed out that competition has spurred the constant effort to furnish better service at lower cost and has brought about the present high transportation standards. Obviously, to set up a few large systems throughout our country which would control virtually all forms of transportation within their respective areas would eliminate the competitive factor and its incentive toward improvement.

How big is America? Just as big as we are willing to let it become through competition and freedom of enterprise.

BLACK MARKET BLACKOUT

It is well that Governor Warren has included a State anti-black market gasoline law in the call for the special session of the Legislature. In this way the backing of California law can be pressed into the fight against illegal gas trafficking.

The recent visit to California of Shad Polier, special government agent whose business it is to hunt down gas racketeers, has brought out the seriousness of the whole gasoline situation. He reminded us that 2½ million gallons of gas are flowing into illegitimate channels daily, that 5 to 20 per cent of all gas coupons are counterfeits, and that hijacking of gasoline trucks and similar gangster practises reminiscent of the "torrid twenties" are increasing.

Those citizens who selfishly patronize the black market are striking at the very core of the war effort. They are burning millions of gallons of gas for personal pleasure and convenience that could be used to drive our tanks on the battlefield, transport war workers to and from their jobs, keep the great fleet of commercial trucks rolling in their vital task of moving great quantities of war materials and keeping scores of communities supplied with food.

It is high time for such people to realize that they are supporting Hitler—and high time to stop it. The cooperation of every citizen is absolutely essential if we are to succeed in "blacking out" the black market.

CLASS OF '44

This year the graduation march in colleges, universities and high schools is leading thousands of eager young Americans out of the classroom into a war-sobered world.

Most of the young men are headed for active military duty with Uncle Sam. And most of the young women, especially the high school graduates who are yet too young to join the Wacs or Waves, will back them up by carrying on with the home front phases of the war.

Business firms, directly or indirectly important to the war effort, whose ranks have been depleted by the draft, offer unusual opportunities to these young women. These are opportunities not only for work during the war, but for real business careers to those who wish to have them. This is especially true in the banking field which has assumed many important duties for the government in order to further aid in the prosecution of the war.

The graduates of 1944 are well aware of the problems and responsibilities that face them in these times. There can be no doubt, however, that they will meet them through the confidence and courage characteristic of the youth of today.

Blood Ties Prove Important

Blood ties between the battle front and the factory have been recognized as an important stimulus to American war production. Actual figures, however, have been lacking.

Today, the Studebaker Corporation furnished an insight into fighter-worker bonds with an announcement that every sixth employe on war production has one or more immediate relatives in the armed services.

Results of a recently completed survey show Studebaker's 4,161 armament producers have either a son, daughter, husband, brother or sister in training or in combat areas. The 4,161 report a total of 6,840 relatives.

Four employes, one in Chicago, one in Fort Wayne and two in South Bend are tied for top honors, each with five sons in the services.

Mrs. Mary Sheetz, 55, Chicago, who masks parts of the Flying Fortress engine before painting processes, has the largest stake among mothers. Five of her six husky sons are either in the Air Forces or Artillery.

Andrew Orzulak, 55, a spot sander on military truck cabs, has one son in the Navy, four in the Army. Deo Nicodemus, 60, a machine repairman, has contributed five sons from his family of 12 children.

Oren R. Markey, 51, a Fort Wayne aircraft engine parts inspector, says that in addition to stars for five sons, his service flag contains a sixth for a daughter-in-law who is a nurse in England.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

"Fair Stood the Wind for France" by Squadron Leader H. E. Bates is said to be the first novel to be passed by the censor which tells in any detail what happens to those bombing crews who are brought down behind the German lines.

H. E. BATES

The scene of "Fair Stood the Wind for France" (which is a June Book-of-the-Month Club selection) is in France, in 1941, when there was still an occupied and unoccupied zone. Four men are returning from a bombing mission to Italy, when something goes wrong with the plane, and they are forced down.

A French family hides them in an old mill. O'Connor, who has a native distrust of everything French, thinks they should get out fast. The Captain, Franklin, whose arm has been severely hurt in the crash, rules that they stay.

The two youngest airmen are the first to be sent out on the perilous route that will lead them to safety. Franklin, whose arm had become gangrenous and who must undergo an amputation performed at night by two brave French doctors, is the last. When he does leave, the daughter of the household, Francoise, goes with him, knowing that handicapped as he is, he will not be able to make the journey alone. At the border of Spain, by a strongely ironic twist, O'Connor—the same who hates all things French—gives his life to save the French girl. And so the story ends.

H. E. Bates, author of "Fair Stood the Wind for France," was born in the English Midlands 39 years ago. He began writing at the age of 17, as junior reporter on a country newspaper. Two years later he had finished his second book, and it was followed by ten others in as many years. At the beginning of the war, he joined up with the R.A.F. and ever since he has lived with those fighting men, messed with them, talked with them. His book of short stories about the Royal Air Force, published here under the title of "There's Something in the Air," as well as his new novel, reveal his wonderful insight into the minds of the boys who fly the Hurricanes and the Spitfires.

Contrary to what most of us are taught about Holland, the Dutch don't skate in wooden shoes, says David Cornel de Jong, in his autobiography, "With a Dutch Accent." They use leather ones, for the others just wouldn't stay on. The average Dutch boy and girl learns skating at the age of four, and keeps it up all his life. An exception was David's grandmother, who when she was in her sixties, announced that she would no longer go out on the rinks. At that age, she hinted, one considered one's dignity. But because she still felt the need of exercise, she took up bicycling.

Tickets On Sale For '44 Ice Follies

Tickets went on sale, this week, for the dazzling Ice Follies of 1944 which is coming back home to San Francisco for its sixth annual appearance at Winterland, in San Francisco, starting Wednesday, June 14.

The spectacular new edition of the Ice Follies will surpass all previous editions in production, calibre of artists, brilliancy of costume, originality of music, showmanship, and splendor of lighting, it was announced by the show's producers.

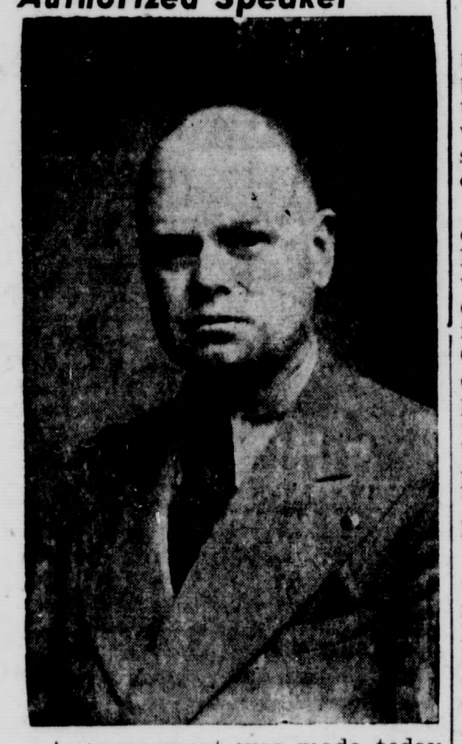
Patrons were urged by Winterland's management to order by mail as a convenient way of securing good seats and saving time, tires and gasoline. Checks or money orders should be mailed to Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, in San Francisco, it was stated.

The Ice Follies of 1944 combines the beauty and gayety of old France, the fun and frolic of a circus; the color and glamour of the race track; rural comedy, and Oriental pageantry. Its eight eye-filling production numbers are presented by a galaxy of the world's greatest skaters.

Among the notable names who will be welcomed back to San Francisco are Betty Atkinson; Norah McCarthy, radiant Irish-Canadian star; Roy Shipstad, the "world's smoothest skater;" Heinie Brock, the diminutive comedian; Fran Claudet; Papez and Zwack; the Vanity Fair Trio; and Ruby Maxson and Bobby Blake.

The 1944 edition of the Ice Follies presents artists new to the company. Among the newcomers is petite Hazel Franklin, the English skating star, and Michael Kirby, Canadian champion. Miss Franklin does a solo number and Kirby teams with Miss McCarthy in two of the most spectacular sequences of the show. Other newcomers are the Miltons, in a stylized ballroom dance on skates.

Authorized Speaker



Announcement was made today by the local unit of Technocracy Inc. of a special meeting, June 6, at which the proposed drafting of labor will be the subject of discussion. An address entitled, "Should Labor Be Conscripted?" will be delivered by Reo W. McCaslin, above, an authorized speaker for the organization and director of the San Francisco section.

McCaslin has just completed a lecture tour of the western United States and Canada, and will relate to his audience some of the reactions and situations he has found in labor circles in both countries.

The June 6 meeting will be held at the Technocracy auditorium, 236 McAllister street, beginning promptly at 8:15 p. m. There will be no reserved seats, and those wanting good seats should plan to come early. There is an admission charge.

They were Pauline Byrne, Heather Bridges, Jacqueline Gallas, Dawn Thornton, Joanne Hyder, and Claudine Hyder. After the investiture, refreshments were served, including several cakes donated by the Brownies for the party.

Leader is Mrs. Elsie Hesselein.

War Housing Center Praises Newspapers

The San Mateo County War Housing Center, through its manager, Louis Lengfeld, has issued the following statement to the newspapers of San Mateo county:

"During the past month, we tried to find accommodations for 1994 people in our two offices and succeeded in placing 240. Unfortunately, 1754 had to be disappointed.

"From present indications, the demand will increase until July 15, at least. Although the regional office has told us that in proportion to population we have been able to obtain more voluntary listings from the people of our communities than any other area in Northern California, we still have not enough, especially for families of servicemen stationed in this area. Anyone having any accommodations close to transportation is urged to please list same with us at once.

"The good showing we have made in regard to voluntary listings could never have been achieved without the aid of the newspapers of this county, who so kindly helped us by giving much invaluable space to our pleas, in spite of the shortage of newsprint and the need for cutting down lineage. We do not know how to thank them enough for their cooperation and those applicants who were fortunate enough to get lodgings through their efforts do not know how to express their great appreciation for the kindness."

Down On The Farm— There'll Be A Jeep!

Farmers of San Mateo county, many of whom have indicated through a national survey their desire to own a Jeep after the war, can save approximately $329,175 for post-war rehabilitation if they take advantage of the scout car's four-sided personality, a recent study reveals.

This figure is based on the difference between the estimated price of a post-war Jeep and the total cost of the four farm units which, according to extensive research and experimentation, it can replace.

Recent tests by accredited farm experts, including officials of the Department of Agriculture, reveal that the Jeep has "a great deal of farm blood in its mechanical veins," according to Ward M. Canaday, president of Willys-Overland Motors, who said his company's engineers have proven "on the soil" that the scout car can be used as an effective four-purpose substitute for the horse, the tractor, the independent power plant and the light truck.

In the Department of Agriculture's report on its recent experiments with the vehicle, issued by R. B. Gray, head of the Farm Equipment and Research Division, the Jeep was described as "highly useful in plowing, harrowing and other field work."

First findings in the continuing Jeep studies made by the agricultural engineering department of Washington State college and Ohio State university demonstrates that the vehicle, in its present military form, serves many all-round purposes effectively, especially for the small farm.

MORE EGGS !

San Mateo county poultrymen are asked by the government to produce approximately 957,313 dozen eggs this year as their part in the Food for Victory program, the National Poultry Defense committee announced today.

This county goal can best be reached if housewives take full advantage of the present egg surplus and plan more menus calling for greater use of eggs, thus encouraging farmers to maintain high production, declared Committee Secretary Leon Todd.

In urging poultrymen to meet the 1944 quota, Todd pointed out the current egg abundance may be followed by a serious shortage if farmers liquidate some of their laying flocks because of inability to dispose of eggs at profitable prices now.

Studebaker Champion rates high with busy Federal law officer

HERE'S a letter from Frank M. Durrance of Orlando, Florida who says:

"My 1941 Studebaker Champion has been driven about 150,000 miles—at the lowest maintenance cost of any car I've ever owned. Whether across the county or across the nation, this dependable Studebaker is always ready to go on a moment's notice. Its gasoline mileage is consistently high and its materials and workmanship are the finest."

Yes, these war days, the tire-saving, gas-saving, soundly built Studebaker Champion adds new luster to its reputation from coast to coast.

It's no wonder that used Studebaker Champions, Commanders and Presidents are in such big demand everywhere.

Appoint Gros Manager Of Dept.

Robert R. Gros, for the past seven years a member of the Pacific Gas and Electric company's publicity staff, has been appointed manager of the Publicity and Advertising department, effective June 1.

Gros has been acting manager of the department for the past eight months since the illness and death of the late A. C. Joy. Prior to that time he served as field representative of the department in press relations and as speaker for the company before a wide variety of civic and other public meetings. In his seven years of utility service he has spoken in some 150 California communities, averaging 200 addresses each year.

Gros was graduated in 1935 from Stanford university where he majored in political science. His scholastic honors included membership in Phi Beta Kappa and award of the degree of B. A. "with great distinction." During his undergraduate days he was manager and member of the Stanford Debating team on national tours, and also was prominent in other student extra-curricular activities.

Following graduation he remained at Stanford for a year of graduate work in public opinion, administration and political science, acting at the same time as business manager of the Associated Students, and chairman of the Men's Council for Student Control. He spent an additional year at Stanford as instructor in political science and public opinion and university debate coach.

Gros is a member of the California Newspaper Publishers association, Commonwealth club, San Francisco Press club, San Francisco Advertising club, Public Utilities Advertising association, American Council on Public Relations and Stanford Alumni association.

Aircraft Warning Service To Cease

Announcement by the War department that the entire civilian volunteer program of the Aircraft Warning Service would cease operations, June 1, brings to a close one of the stirring chapters in the story of civilian participation in the war effort. It has often been said that this is a total war involving civilians and soldiers alike but many individuals nonetheless have failed to realize their full potentiality as a part of the war machine. This criticism, however, cannot be applied to the many volunteers who have served so long and faithfully with the Aircraft Warning Service.

Prior to the outbreak of hostilities, December 7, 1941 the organization for the Aircraft Warning Service had been set up by the Fourth Air Force and a training program was under way. When the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor the volunteers with the A. W. S. were ready to handle the emergency and Observation Posts, Filter Centers and Information Centers began functioning immediately.

Local OPA Board Prepares New Column

This is a new column, prepared by the local O. P. A. board. It will appear weekly in The Record to bring you the latest in O. P. A. changes, acquaint you with the workings of your local board, and give you an insight into some of the daily happenings at the board. Suggestions will be offered that will help decrease the work of the board and speed up the handling of your requests.

The main interest this past week has been centered around canning sugar. If you NEED it, you are allowed 10 per pounds per person between May 15 and July 15 and another 10 pounds per person from August 15 to October 15.

When mailing applications for canning sugar pin or paste the stamps (SPARE 37) to the application—too many are lost if sent in loose.

There are ceiling prices on used refrigerators (if you can find one.) Call the price secretary at your local board, South San Francisco 1221, for prices.

There is a manpower shortage at your local board too—be patient and whenever possible apply for gasoline one or two weeks prior to actual need. Do not phone in or ask for rations over the counter. Why waste gasoline? Use mail!

Tying-in sales are illegal and you do not have to buy something you do not want to get something you do want. You do not have to buy five bars of an off-brand soap to get two bars of your favorite brand; nor do you have to buy a bottle of high priced wine to get a bottle of whiskey. Those are "tying-in" sales and are illegal. Report them to your local board. If you are in doubt as to whether there is a violation of the price ceilings on the part of the merchant offering goods, your local Board will be glad to investigate.

ATTENTION TRUCK OPERATORS: third quarter transport rations will be valid July 1. These will not be mailed. Please call at board office for your rations, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco.

PROJECT ROOM

Created for the woman, who, because of home obligations, cannot commit herself to serve definite days or at specific hours, the "project room" of the Alta Plaza Red Cross center, 2622 Jackson street, welcomes workers from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. daily, Monday through Friday.

Volunteers with even a few minutes to spare for war work, can here perform a necessary job cutting and preparing salvaged material for craftwork. Material is sent, on preparation, to military hospitals for convalescent servicemen to while away the hours weaving.

Women are invited to serve at the center at their convenience if only occasionally or for a short period of time. No pre-registration is necessary.

desire to be of service to their country, according to Miss Northberg. Membership in the Girl Scouts has increased more than 28 per cent since Pearl Harbor, and there are nearly a million girls taking part in the program. Many more would join if room could be found for them in the already over-crowded troops.

"More leaders and adult volunteers is the answer," Miss Northberg said. "Even though there are nearly 200,000 women—and men, too—enlisted in Girl Scouting, twice as many could be used. Any woman who can give an hour or two a week—or month—to the girls of her community will find a job for her in Girl Scouting—and one which will repay her a thousandfold in the kind of satisfaction which no money can buy."

The meeting, Monday night, was held at the home of Mrs. Cecelia Hale, 599 Crocker avenue, and at that time a nominating committee was appointed from the people present. The committee is composed of five members, Mrs. Hilda Heagney was elected chairman, and other members are Mrs. Hazel Marsh, Mrs. Mabel Becker, Mrs. Lucille Lemon, and Mrs. Muriel Pabst. This committee is to select, from names submitted to them, twelve people to compose a council, to be known as Daly City Girl Scout Council, this council will take the place of the former general committee, and will be the guiding hand in all Girl Scout affairs as soon as it is organized.

Miss Northberg will be in Daly City again the latter part of June to personally organize this council, at which time another leaders' meeting will be held to introduce the members of the council to the various troops.

Another committee was also selected to work out a budget for the next year. This committee, known as the budget committee, is only temporary but they will make a plea for funds from the War Chest for all necessary expenses for the council for the next year. This committee is headed by Mrs. Elsie Hesselein as chairman, and includes Reverend D. C. McKisson and Mrs. Muriel Pabst. The budget committee will be dissolved as soon as the new council is organized.

Twenty people were present at the meeting and afterwards, coffee and doughnuts were served by Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Janet DeLucchi, and Mrs. Muriel Pabst.

A Gastronomic Medley

By Frances Lee Barton

TAKE several of your left-overs; add a little salt, vinegar and other seasonings; combine with some gelatin—but let's stop generalizing. Here's the actual recipe for a medley that will positively delight:

Jellied Vegetable Medley

1 package lime-flavored gelatin
1½ cups hot water and vegetable stock and 2 chicken bouillon cubes
2 tablespoons vinegar
½ teaspoon scraped onion
1 tablespoon pimiento strips
½ cup thinly sliced celery
⅓ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
½ cup cooked peas or string beans
1 cup cooked rice
¼ teaspoon celery salt

Dissolve gelatin in hot liquid. Add vinegar and onion. Measure ½ cup; add 2 tablespoons water. Chill. When slightly thickened, add pimiento and ¼ cup celery. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Add 2 tablespoons water to remaining gelatin. Chill until slightly thickened. Place in bowl of ice and water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in mayonnaise and remaining ingredients. Add salt to taste. Turn into mold over firm gelatin. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with salad greens. Makes 6 servings.

Not everybody with a dollar to spare can shoot a gun straight—but everybody can shoot straight to the bank and buy War Bonds. Buy your 10% every pay day.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

Chocolate Drinks

By Frances Lee Barton

WOULD you like your refrigerator to contain a rich, tasty, syrup that could be called upon for chocolate drinks or to be served as either a hot or cold sauce? If so, here's a recipe that may be followed without worrying much about ration "points":

Premium Chocolate Syrup

3 squares unsweetened chocolate
⅔ cup water
½ cup sugar
Dash of salt
½ cup corn syrup
½ teaspoon vanilla

Place chocolate and water in saucepan. Cook slowly until thick and well blended, stirring constantly. Add sugar and salt; bring to a boil and boil gently 2 minutes, stirring constantly. (For a thicker sauce, boil 4 minutes.) Add corn syrup and bring again to a boil. Remove from heat. Cool slightly, then add vanilla. Turn into jar; cover tightly. Keep in refrigerator. Makes about 1½ cups syrup. Serve hot or cold as sauce or use in chocolate drinks. For chocolate drinks, use 2 tablespoons syrup to 1 cup milk.

Between-Meal Pick-Ups

WHEN you feel tired and let down due to overwork, a bite to eat will often put you on your feet again. A bit of something sweet and a fragrant cup of coffee make a grand combination for a between-meal snack. The Coffee Raisin Bars pictured above are just the thing for such an occasion . . . and with every satisfying sip of coffee there's a lift for your spirits. It's just what you need when energy is at low ebb.

These Coffee Raisin Bars are easy to make and easy to eat, too. The coffee in the recipe gives an unexpected and delicious flavor. There's no fuss and bother in the making, either, for no rolling or cutting is necessary. Just place dough in a greased pan and bake about 25 minutes. Coffee Raisin Bars keep well, too, and are good for packing in the lunchbox as well as for serving at home. Here's the recipe for Coffee Raisin Bars. It's tested, of course.

Coffee Raisin Bars

½ cup hot coffee
½ cup raisins
1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
½ teaspoon allspice or cinnamon

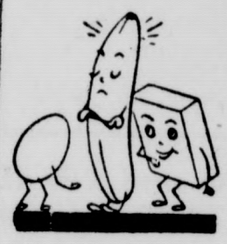
Pour hot coffee over raisins. Mix and sift flour, baking powder, soda, spices and salt. Cream shortening and sugar together until fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in coffee-raisin mixture. Add flour all at once and beat well. Bake in greased oblong pan 12 x 8 in moderate oven (350° F.) about 25 minutes until lightly browned. Remove from pan, cut in bars and roll in powdered sugar if desired.

Yield: 16 bars.

Stretching the Banana

By Frances Lee Barton

BANANAS are not plentiful enough so we can gorge on them as we once did. But a few are usually obtainable, so that delicious banana-flavored desserts may be enjoyed regularly.



Here's a recipe that calls for but three ingredients. Unrationed, at that!

Banana Pudding

1 recipe prepared vanilla pudding
1 egg white
1 large or 2 small ripe bananas, diced

Prepare pudding as directed on package. Beat egg white until just stiff enough to hold up in moist peaks. Fold hot pudding mixture gradually into egg white. Fold in banana. Cool, stirring occasionally. Turn into sherbet glasses. Chill. Garnish with banana slices and maraschino cherry, if desired. Serve plain or with cream. Makes 5 or 6 servings

Remove All Lard Ration Restrictions

Because the present supply is deemed adequate to meet all civilian needs, the Office of Price Administration, last week, removed all rationing restrictions from lard.

The action became effective May 25, 1944.

Lard has had a zero point value since Friday, March 3, 1944, when an increase in the allocation of the commodity for civilian use made possible the ending of its ration price of three red points per pound. But, though point free, the item still remained technically under rationing.

As a result of last week's action, all restrictions on the amount of lard that may be acquired by industrial or institutional users are removed, and all record keeping and reporting requirements under OPA rationing regulations are eliminated.

News From District Grammar Schools

AT CROCKER

Last week the students of Room 2 were shown lantern slides entitled "Life in the Pacific States." After seeing these, the children had a good idea of the industries carried on in this group of states.

In connection with their science unit on "Seashore Life," the pupils of Room 3 have been bringing to class many specimens. Several students brought cowry shell necklaces, which were made by natives on South Sea islands.

Room 4 was shown a film, "Life of George Washington, Building the Nation." This picture illustrated the disorder and extravagance which followed the Revolution.

The pupils of Room 6 were shown a very interesting film on "The Benefactor, Thomas Edison." This moving picture, which was in two parts, correlated with the unit on "The Development of Culture."

AT WOODROW

Last Tuesday the Woodrow Wilson student body enjoyed an interesting talk by Miss Hilda Ihles, who also gave a reading in Braille.

The tin drive at Woodrow Wilson school proved a huge success. Almost six thousand pounds of tin were collected, weighed, and cartoned.

Reports on important statesmen during the period of the Civil War were given by various pupils of Room 4, recently.

The students of Room 8 received a great deal of enjoyment during their art period, last Thursday. They spent their time making large silhouettes of their fellow classmates. They did this by flashing a light against paper and then tracing the student's features.

Room 9 enjoyed a film on the planting and harvesting of wheat. Early methods and modern methods of farming were contrasted.

Room 12 saw a very interesting film entitled "Magic Shoemaking." They learned how leather is used to make shoes and how much more rapidly shoes are made by machinery than were made by the shoemakers of their grandparents' day.

Room 15 saw a very interesting film on "Time." The class saw how time was told from cavemen up to the present day watch.

The children in Room 14 are busy making several maps of California. On some of the maps they are placing the fruits of California, on others the vegetables, and on some the livestock, poultry, and grains of tne state.

AT JEFFERSON

Wednesday of this week, all the children of Jefferson elementary had an opportunity to listen to an unusual program, prepared by the Latham foundation for the promotion of humane education in the public schools, and especially suited to school children.

This program was presented by Miss Hilda Ihles, her Seeing Eye Dog and Miss Ihles' sister Frances. Miss Ihles read a dramatic story based upon a true incident that occurred in China about seven years ago. The hero of the story is a little Russian boy, who through his loyalty, courage and determination rescued his four pets from destruction by ruthless Japanese soldiers.

Miss Ihles read her story from a book written in Braille, while her sister Frances deftly moved the descriptive pictures that illustrated the story. Erna, Miss Ihles' Seeing Eye Dog, obligingly showed how she obeyed commands and at the conclusion of the program barked a 'Thank-you' to the children.

To complete the children's happiness, everyone was presented with a charming black and white picture of the little Russian boy and his four pets, that could be colored.

The sixth grade had a pleasing variation in their art program, last week. One of the pupils, Carolee Hobson, brought her collection of Walt Disney figurines to school so that her classmates might enjoy them, too. The children were so delighted with them that they asked permission to draw and color sketches of the figurines during the art period.

If you want to know anything about insects come and visit the second and third grade room at Jefferson. On a shelf, in a corner of the class room, is an assortment of bottles containing many types of insects, all neatly labeled. High on the wall is a long frieze of pictures showing insects in their natural environment. These pictures too are carefully labeled. Most of the children have learned to hold a magnifying glass over the insects and recognize the three divisions of their bodies; head, thorax and abdomen. They seem to regard the use of the magnifying glass as a "Great Adventure."

Here's How It Is About Gasoline

B-2 and C-2 gasoline ration coupons—the old-type B and C rations without serial numbers—became invalid for use by consumers, today, June 1, the Office of Price Administration reminded today.

Supplemental rations renewed since March 1 have been issued in the form of serially-numbered, strip-type B-3 and C-3 coupons. The bulk of B-2 and C-2 coupons still outstanding June 1 will therefore be unused rations issued before March 1, and renewable before June 1.

Invalidation of the B-2 and C-2 coupons will leave only serially-numbered B and C coupons in circulation.

The serially-numbered coupons cut down the chances of black market diversion in three ways:

1. The serial number gives a permanent identity to every coupon. Stolen coupons, therefore, can be identified as stolen wherever they turn up, instead of looking like any other coupons as soon as the covers are torn off the books.

2. The old-type sheets of coupons, containing a definite number of coupons, had to be "tailored" to the mileage allowed each applicant by tearing out coupons at the time of issuance. The strip form of the new coupons makes tailoring unnecessary and eliminates the possibility that loose, tailored coupons may be lost or stolen before they can be voided and destroyed.

3. Serially numbered coupons are much more difficult to counterfeit than the old type—so much so that no counterfeits have been discovered among them so far.

Serial numbering does not make endorsement of coupons by motorists any less necessary, OPA emphasized. The endorsement of State and license number on every coupon still provides the only way of tracing the source of illegal coupons after they have been exchanged for gasoline.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

Form Local Committee To Collect Clothing

To collect clothing and shoes for the people living in liberated sections of Italy, a committee of Italian ladies of Colma and Daly City has been formed. Sponsored by the War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare conference, with the full consent of the War Relief committee of this nation, the clothing drive for Italy will continue to June 11. It began Sunday of this week, May 28.

The Most Reverend Archbishop John J. Mitty has authorized and recommended the campaign and has appointed Reverend Father Thomas DeMattei, S. C., Pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul in San Francisco, chairman.

The local committee of ladies will be on hand to receive donations of clothes and shoes every afternoon from June 2 to June 10 at 7384 Mission street (Olcese building). Everybody is asked to send wearing apparel for the worthy cause to this address or to Holy Angels rectory, San Pedro road, Colma, during the drive.
